Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus said, “Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head.”

Luke 9:58

Mission Statement

The Catholic Community of St. Jude is formed in faith in Jesus Christ. We seek to grow in our faith through the proclamation of God's Word and the celebration of the Sacraments. We are dedicated to love and care for all God's people in their physical and spiritual needs. The stewardship of our time, talent and treasure is conducted in a way that shows our gratitude to God for His blessings.

Stewardship

As a Stewardship Parish, we budget 10% tithing of our offertory gifts toward charitable & worthy causes.

The Story and You™

Sacred Conversations

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

I used to just HATE the part in today's gospel where Jesus tells his disciples to "let the dead bury their dead." So, who WOULD bury their parents, if the sons were off being disciples of Jesus? My guess was that it was going to be their attentive daughters.

But then I learned this: those dusty archaeologists (bless them) who spend their lives digging in the scorching Mediterranean sun have given us a very comforting explanation of this MOST unsettling command in today's Gospel. It's simply this: the burial time for the dead in Jesus' day was an entire year. After burying the dead immediately---as we've seen in the gospel accounts of Jesus' own death---the sons "sit shi'va" for seven days.

But then the corpse was left in the tomb for eleven months, after which the relatives re-buried the decomposed body by taking the bones and placing them in a burial box, an ossuary, and placing it back in the tomb, along with the bones of all the other family dead in various stages of burial. The tomb continued to fill with the other dead from the family, buried for the first time, and then again a year later.

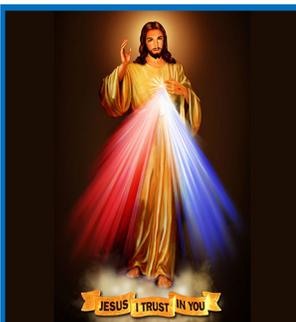

What a great relief to consider that Jesus was thinking of all those dead, buried with the other dead, whose death demands kept the sons in endless burial cycles. Let the dead bury their dead. Be at peace. My heavenly Father knows where all the bodies are buried. In just a short time you will see what God has planned for My tomb, and yours, and theirs too. Death is not the last word. Just follow me. You'll see.

What are the burial customs in your family?

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Knight of the Month, May 2022 Edgardo (Ed) S. Basuel

If you attend the 9:00 AM Mass at St. Jude Parish on Sunday mornings, you will notice a member of the Knights of Columbus wearing his green vest seated near the front of the Church. Since it was founded in March 2016, Brother Ed has been an active member of Council 16052. Most people recognize Edgardo for his culinary expertise, especially at the Parish picnic and Family Breakfasts (Ed keeps his recipe for French toast a secret). Brother Edgardo is one of the more active members of the Council - he is a regular volunteer at the monthly Mobile Food Pantry, Tootsie Roll drive, peach sales and others. He is also an active participant in the Faith Share group. Congratulate Brother Edgardo Basuel on his well-deserved recognition as the May 2022 Knight of the Month.

Family of the Month, May 2022 Dennis E. & Edie Staff

Brother Dennis Staff joined the Knights of Columbus in November 2008 and is currently a member of St. Jude Council 16052. He has also been recognized by St. Jude as Parishoner of the Year honoree.

Brother Dennis is currently an employee of St. Jude, serving as a night guard and making sure to graciously accommodate the many evening functions. He also leads the Militia Immaculata and is a Church Sacristan. Both Edie and Dennis serve the parish as Eucharistic Ministers at daily and weekend Masses. Edie is a member of the Rosary makers group as well as the Saint Francis Circle. It is noteworthy that both Dennis and Edie are graduates of the 4 year Catholic Biblical School and both assist at funeral Masses. We congratulate this very active couple for being selected as Council 16052, Knight of Columbus Family of the Month for May 2022.

Serra Club of Southwest Denver promotes and affirms vocations to the ministerial priesthood and consecrated life in the church through many activities, one of which is the Vocation Cross Kit program which encourages families to pray for vocations with their families for a month. We meet twice a month at Holy Name Parish on the 1st and 3rd Friday mornings. We attend Mass at local parishes each month followed by a meal with the pastor to affirm their vocations. For more information about our Club, you may contact Maureen McGee-O'Shea 303-988-6983 or Dixie Schulte 303-356-9592.

R.C.I.A.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS

St. Jude's RCIA program is a year round program. This model of formation provides a form of learning, centered on the relationship of the individual with the person of Jesus Christ and with his body, the Church. It centers catechesis in the primary place where that relationship is fostered and celebrated, in the community of faith that gathers Sunday by Sunday throughout the year. "Within the cycle of the year the Church unfolds the whole mystery of Christ, from his incarnation and birth until his ascension, the day of Pentecost and the expectation of blessed hope and of the Lord's return." This model also respects the journey of each person. It assumes that those who come seeking initiation will be welcomed whenever they arrive, no matter what time of the year that happens to be.

In this model of sacramental catechesis, the Church uses the language of journey, conversion, discipleship and relationship. Rather than a program of specific instruction, the RCIA suggests a fluid, gradual process of formation, the heart of which is the paschal mystery of Jesus Christ.

Contact Deacon Mike Bunch 303-988-6435 or mbunch@saintjudelakewood.org to register.

Welcome New Parishioners!

If you are new to our parish and have not registered, please pick up a registration form at our welcome desk in the gathering space. The committee will also give you a welcome bag!
