The stewardship of our time, talent and treasure is conducted in a way that shows our gratitude to God for His blessings.

A Message from Our Pastor

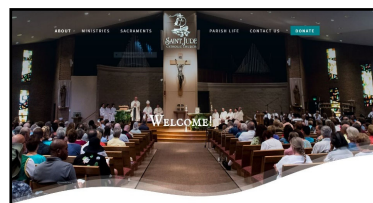

Ora et Labora

Some of you may have heard that we have started a podcast here at St. Jude parish. Starting last week I will sit down each week with our youth minister Tyler and we will talk about what is happening at the parish as well as dive deeper into the Gospel. You can find our podcast through the parish website and through the Flocknotes and we hope that you might consider listening to us each week.

This past week we listened from the Gospel of Luke to the story of Martha and Mary and dove into the idea of living a life of both prayer and work. As Christians, many of us are not able to spend all of our time in contemplative prayer as we have work and responsibilities in the world. But we should not let those responsibilities get in the way of giving time to our Lord at his feet as Mary did in last week's gospel. It is a big reason why most daily Masses are in the morning - it gives us an opportunity to start our day, given over to the Lord in prayer and in receiving Him in the Eucharist.

In the Christian life, it is both prayer and work that we must live in our lives. The Benedictine monks have a phrase for this, Ora et Labora, prayer and work. Their daily lives are spent doing different tasks to help the monastery but even as they spend time in work, they make it a prayer to our Lord. I encourage you to find ways in your daily work and family lives to sit at our Lord's feet and allow Him to guide your days in both prayer and work.

-Fr. Jason Thuerlauf

INTERESTED IN BECOMING CATHOLIC?

St. Jude's RCIA program is a year round program. This model of formation provides a form of learning, centered on the relationship of the individual with the person of Jesus Christ and with his body, the Church. It centers catechesis in the primary place where that relationship is fostered and celebrated, in the community of faith that gathers Sunday by Sunday throughout the year. "Within the cycle of the year the Church unfolds the whole mystery of Christ, from his incarnation and birth until his ascension, the day of Pentecost and the expectation of blessed hope and of the Lord's return." This model also respects the journey of each person. It assumes that those who come seeking initiation will be welcomed whenever they arrive, no matter what time of the year that happens to be.

In this model of sacramental catechesis, the Church uses the language of journey, conversion, discipleship and relationship. Rather than a program of specific instruction, the RCIA suggests a fluid, gradual process of formation, the heart of which is the paschal mystery of Jesus Christ.
