Mission Statement

The Catholic Community of St. Jude is formed in faith in Jesus Christ. We seek to grow in our faith through the proclamation of God's Word and the celebration of the Sacraments. We are dedicated to love and care for all God's people in their physical and spiritual needs. The stewardship of our time, talent, and treasure is conducted in a way that shows our gratitude to God for His blessings.

Baptisms

Welcome to the Church!

Baptized June 4, 2023 by Deacon Joe Hensley

Save the Date!

Registration Begins Today For Vacation Bible School!

Save the dates for our Totally Catholic VBS, July 10th – 14th from 9 a.m. to noon! This year's theme is "Stellar – Shine Jesus' Light". Children entering Kindergarten through 6th grade are encouraged to join us for the best week of the summer! Registration will be after all the Masses June 10th & 11th. We hope to see your children join in the fun!

Quiet Mass for the Summer

The Sunday 7AM Mass will be designated as a "quiet" Mass, meaning there will be no musical accompaniment, much like a daily Mass.

Father's Day Novena

Fathers' Day Envelopes are available in the pews. Remember your father, uncle, brother, grandfather, or friend, living or deceased, in a Novena of Masses.

A Message from Our Pastor

What is a Sequence?

You may have noticed a couple of times over the past few weeks that we have had something a little different in our Mass order. After we listen to the proclamation of the second reading, we typically stand up for the Alleluia and the Gospel reading, but this weekend and back on Pentecost, there was something else that we recited in between them, a Sequence.

What are these sequences? They are ancient poetry and this weekend's sequence was written by St. Thomas Aquinas. Over the years, many of the sequences that used to be in the Missal for Mass have been taken out, but some of them were said to be too beautiful to be left out and so some of them continue to be in our liturgy to this day. These ancient poems were originally written in Latin, so in translation they lose a little of their poetic beauty, but nevertheless they lead us into a deeper reflection on the mysteries of our faith.

This weekend's sequence is in honor of our solemnity today, Corpus Christi, the celebration of the Body and Blood of Christ. We give honor and worship to our Lord in the reception of His Body and Blood this weekend. And with that I want to challenge you to do two things this week. First, I want you to reflect on what it means to receive the Eucharist this weekend. When we receive the Eucharist, we allow Jesus to be with us and we become as Christ-bearers, like Mary for those nine months she was pregnant. We are carrying Jesus with us, and therefore we should go forth and bear the light of Christ in our everyday life at home, work, or even the grocery store. Secondly, I encourage you to look up the words of this Sunday's sequence and spend a little time in prayer with it, even if it is just a couple stanzas. Allow these beautiful words of St. Thomas Aquinas to lead you into a greater reflection on our faith and on the Eucharist.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

St. Jude is seeking a part-time Music Coordinator

This person will be responsible for:

- Coordinate our Music Ministry Program
- Schedule Musicians for Sunday Masses and special Masses
- Choose and pull from our library music for Sunday Masses and special Masses
- Play and/or sing at some Masses
- Support and recruit vocalists and accompanists
- Set and manage the annual music ministry budget
- Maintain the church sound system, piano and organ

The ideal candidate will have knowledge of and experience with Catholic liturgy.

Have you been out to the Saint Jude Rosary Park recently?

We invite you to come spend time in prayer anytime.

Interested in helping? Many thanks to Jon Wehri and the Knights of Columbus for the fresh new look. There are some other projects that need to be done out there as well – please contact the parish office if you are interested in helping out.

We Need You!

Vacation Bible School will be July 10-14th this summer and we need adult and teen volunteers to make this a safe and fun way to shine the light of Jesus' love!

There are many ways to help - no experience is necessary, just a love for working with children and a desire to help lead them to Jesus! This is a great opportunity for young and old alike.

Email Deacon Joe at jhensley@saintjudelakewood.org if you are interested in helping out this year.

Want to help but can't volunteer? We also need donations to defray the cost of putting on a quality program. Make checks payable to St. Jude with VBS in the memo line!
