Mission Statement

The Catholic Community of St. Jude is formed in faith in Jesus Christ. We seek to grow in our faith through the proclamation of God's Word and the celebration of the Sacraments. We are dedicated to love and care for all God's people in their physical and spiritual needs. The stewardship of our time, talent, and treasure is conducted in a way that shows our gratitude to God for His blessings.

Welcome Ed Dill Music Coordinator

I am extremely excited to join the St. Jude staff and this wonderful community! My wife, Julie, and I met in our university chapel choir, and we have been providing music at church together for the past 25 years. Our twin 13-year-old daughters, Hannah and Rebecca, also love to sing and are learning to play piano, drums, and trumpet. Since 2007, I have ministered at several parishes in the Archdiocese of Denver in both staff and volunteer capacities. For some of those years, I also worked as a psychologist and faculty member at the University of Colorado Denver/Anschutz campuses. Our family feels that the Holy Spirit has guided our journey to St. Jude, and we are very much looking forward to meeting you and helping lead worship with the entire music ministry team!

Peace, Ed Dill

Thanks to your generosity, Fr. Hugo Ramos was able to take home $5,703.71 for the Missionary Fraternity of Mary to continue their mission work in supporting seminarians in underdeveloped countries around the world.

St. Jude Scholarship Recipient

Dominic Zarlengo has been a member of St. Jude's for his entire life and is grateful to have grown up in a parish that has strengthened his faith. Throughout Dominic's years at St. Jude, he has served as an altar server, worked with Christ in the City, and shared his faith with others at Vacation Bible School.

Dominic is thankful for the community, support, and faith formation he found at St. Jude. As he moves on to Colorado State University, he is excited to continue to pursue new volunteer and faith-based opportunities. The St. Jude community wishes Dominic the best and will continue to keep him in our prayers as he takes the next steps in his journey.

Pastor's Blog

Those Who Sing Pray Twice

"Qui bene cantat bis orat." This ancient Latin mantra comes from Saint Augustine's commentary on Psalm 73 and is translated as "The one who sings prays twice." The Church has, throughout the ages, rejoiced in the gift of music. Here at Saint Jude Parish we have a long history of praying with beautiful music and that tradition will continue during my tenure as your pastor.

I mention music today because our new Music Coordinator has begun his apostolate at Saint Jude Parish. Ed Dill comes to us with a generous heart and years of experience in church music. Ed will be responsible for music selection, scheduling, and resource distribution. The selection of music which lifts our souls up to God is based primarily upon that which is appropriate for the worship of God on the occasion. We have a symphony of music ministers who volunteer at the parish and Ed will organize them to clearly demonstrate appreciation for their gifts and contributions. Finally, the resources of time, space, and finances will be distributed according to Ed's discernment for effective Divine worship enhanced with beautiful music.

As Ed and his family are welcomed to Saint Jude Parish this weekend, I invite you to reach out to them. We have a beautiful community at Saint Jude Parish with an appreciation for the worthy musical worship of God! Please help me to make sure that Ed knows that we appreciate his talents and support him in his apostolate.

A Pastoral Note from Archbishop Aquila

LET JESUS BE THE TEACHER -In acknowledging the crisis of faith and that the crisis extends to lack of faith in the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, we must ask the Lord, what must we do? In the Bread of Life discourse, Jesus says, "It is written in the Prophets, 'And they will all be taught by God.' Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me" (Jn 6:45). When we were praying and discerning Jesus' plan for the Eucharistic Revival in the Archdiocese of Denver, my attention was drawn first to the Bread of Life discourse in John 6 and then to the story of the disciples on the road to Emmaus in Luke 24. In my heart I heard the words, "Let Jesus be the teacher." I cannot stress enough how important it is for us during this Eucharistic Revival to have frequent recourse to these two passages and to approach them with the heart of a true disciple. I am convicted that Jesus desires to teach each one of us and reveal his eucharistic mystery more deeply.

Caring for our RETIRED PRIESTS

Special Collection for Retired & Infirm Priests' of the Archdiocese of Denver is this weekend August 12 & 13. We currently have more than 50 retired priests in our archdiocese and the number grows each year. This collection is used to directly support all retired priest's welfare including assisted living and memory care, medical costs and much more.

St. Jude will give 10% of our weekend offertory toward this collection. If you would like to make an additional contribution, please write "Retired & Infirm Priests" in the memo on your check, payable to St. Jude or make your gift by scan-

PICNIC PLANS

St Francis Circle will be selling tickets for hand-made prizes to be drawn at the St Jude Picnic on September 10th. We ask for a suggested donation of $1 per ticket or $5 for 6 tickets. See what prizes are available and get your tickets after all masses in the church entrance the weekend of August 26 & 27. All proceeds go toward St Jude Picnic expenses.

Thanks for your participation.

Additional Help Needed for the Picnic

Donate a 2-liter bottle of soda or a 32 oz bottle of Gatorade or Powerade for the Pop Toss. You can drop them off at the parish office during the week or the gathering space on the weekends. Thank you!

We Need Cake! (and Pie and cupcakes!)

The Cake Walk game returns this year! We need you to dust off that recipe box and consider donating a delicious cake, pie, or cupcakes. If you don't bake, no worries! We would love to have your store bought cakes and pies as well. More information about when to drop off your baked goodies in future notes.

Sign Up

Make plans to sign up for running a game booth next weekend after all the Masses. Many hands make light work. If everyone would sign up for an just an hour, the open spots would be covered in no time at all!
