Thank You

I feel blessed and honored by the

Saint Jude Feast which was prepared to celebrate my 25 years of priestly ministry. In this space, I want to offer gratitude. We give thanks in response to love we have received. The Eucharist (a word which means "Thanksgiving") is the liturgical expression of thanks to God for saving us through Jesus Christ.

That is where I chose to begin: Thank you God! I praise God for creating me, for redeeming me in Jesus Christ, and for calling me to be a priest. Secondly, I thank my parents... after all God did not create me alone but he waited for my parents to cooperate with His great plan! My dad and mom gave me a family, encouraged me to live the Catholic faith, and made sacrifices for me. I am grateful to friends and teachers which Providence has given to me. Finally, I thank those who showed me great love at the Saint Jude Feast on October 26th. Those who participated were thanked that evening with a powerful experience, but I thank them again for purchasing tickets. I want to mention by name those who formed the committee to put the event together: Sharon Hensley; Nikkole Cubbage; Jackie Haney; Liz Perry and Maria McCracken. The ambiance was created through the lighting by Mark Cubbage and music by Diane Wieland. While there are many others who merit thanks for their contributions to a successful Saint Jude Feast, it will have to suffice for them to read, "Thank you!"

- Fr. Thuerauf
