Mission Statement

The Catholic Community of St. Jude is formed in faith in Jesus Christ. We seek to grow in our faith through the proclamation of God's Word and the celebration of the Sacraments. We are dedicated to love and care for all God's people in their physical and spiritual needs. The stewardship of our time, talent, and treasure is conducted in a way that shows our gratitude to God for His blessings.

Hymn Number Boards

We have recently installed two hymn number boards in the church. One is in the choir area, and one is located to the left of our new statues. After careful consideration of our church's unique layout, we have placed the boards in these locations so that the hymn numbers can be visible from most pews. While we hope that this visual aid will help support congregational singing, the musicians will continue to announce hymn numbers as well, especially for the benefit of those who cannot see the boards.

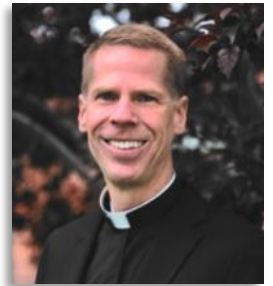

Interested in Being Catholic?

On Wednesday, July 16th, we will have our next introduction to the faith class for anyone wishing to find out more about joining the Catholic Church. Our focus this month is the Bible. If you have a Bible, please bring it to the class. Additional Bibles will be available for use. The gathering will be from 6:30 to 7:30 pm in the St. Benedict Room (church basement). If you know of anyone that might be interested, please call the parish office at 303-988-6435 and ask for Sharon.

Pastor's Blog

Peace of Soul

There is nothing more peaceful than a baby at its mother's breast, drifting in and out of sleep resting in its mother's arms. The second part of the book of Isaiah is called the book of consolation. Israel has suffered the consequences of her sin and now the Lord comforts her. The prophet gives us a beautiful image of God's love:

As nurslings, you shall be carried in her arms,
and fondled in her lap;
as a mother comforts her child,
so will I comfort you.

The result of our relationship with God is peace of soul. This is the deep abiding peace that comes from complete trust in God and surrender to his love. This is the peace that comes from deep prayer – from letting the Word of God penetrate our soul. The Gospel acclamation this weekend invites us, "Let the peace of Christ control your hearts; let the word of Christ dwell in you richly."

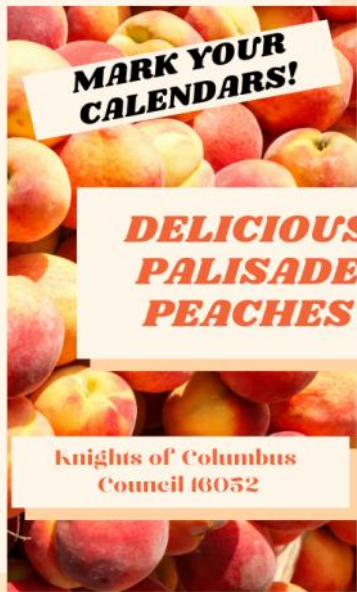

When Jesus sent out the seventy-two, he instructed them, "Into whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this household.' If a peaceful person lives there, your peace will rest on him."

Sometimes it feels like the world has been turned upside down – like the rug has been pulled out from under our feet. In these moments, we turn to God and rest, cradled in his arms.

I have stilled my soul.
Like a weaned child on its mother's lap,
so is my soul within me.

- Fr. Thuerlauf

Honoring Nikkole Cubbage

Our long-time business manager, Nikkole Cubbage, had her last day at Saint Jude Parish on July 1st. She served us all in that capacity for 25 years. Her departure gives me the opportunity to reflect on the gifts which she shared with our parish and offer gratitude.

I suppose that each of us would have had some direct or indirect interaction with Nikkole over the years. As such, you have come to know of her great capacities for leadership at Saint Jude Parish. I would like to share my own happy experiences of Nikkole's expertise. First, Nikkole had the ability to remember numbers. I could ask Nikkole about costs regarding certain items and she knew the answer without having to do research! Additionally, Nikkole remembered when a bill was paid and when it would be due again. That helps in a world of ever-changing vendors and billing cycles. Finally, Nikkole needs credit for the financial success we have experienced over the last years. It is not possible to have such consistent operating surpluses without an effective business manager.

Nikkole leaves a void in our parish, but we do need to fill the business manager position. Please join me in praying that God will send us another talented business manager.
