Mission Statement

The Catholic Community of St. Jude is formed in faith in Jesus Christ. We seek to grow in our faith through the proclamation of God's Word and the celebration of the Sacraments. We are dedicated to love and care for all God's people in their physical and spiritual needs. The stewardship of our time, talent, and treasure is conducted in a way that shows our gratitude to God for His blessings.

I want to express my appreciation and gratitude to the Saint Jude Staff, The Knights of Columbus and their wives for all the work they put in for my retirement Mass and reception. I also want to thank all the parishioners for all the kind words and cards. I truly enjoyed the day and being with Saint Jude one last time.

God Bless you all, Deacon Mike

Pastor's Blog

Welcome all as Christ

Our readings this weekend teach us about hospitality. St. Benedict instructed his monks, "Welcome all as Christ." The Book of Hebrews exhorts, "Do not neglect hospitality, for through it some have unknowingly entertained angels." In our first reading, Abraham welcomed his mysterious visitors with reverence and generosity and, as it turned out, they were angels sent to tell him that his wife Sarah was going to conceive a son.

In the Gospel, we witness a tender scene of intimate friendship. Martha, Mary, and Lazarus have welcomed Jesus into their home. Martha is busy in the kitchen and Mary is reclining at Jesus' feet, listening to him speak.

Abraham welcomed angels, and the little family of Bethany welcomed the Messiah himself!

When I think of hospitality here at St. Jude's, our greeters, the funeral teams, and the Knights come to mind. So many others of you practice hospitality invisibly, in ways only seen by God. Your generous hospitality offers delicious food and a warm welcome to parishioners and visitors alike.

Each of us has the opportunity to practice hospitality every Sunday by welcoming the stranger among us. New visitors come to our parish every week. It can be uncomfortable coming to Mass in a place where you don't know anyone. Take a moment to smile and greet someone you don't recognize. Introduce yourself and let them know that they are welcome here. The person you welcome might just be an angel or Christ in disguise.

Saint Jude Rosary Garden A Hidden Treasure

We invite you to come spend time in prayer anytime. The garden is arranged to help lead you through the rosary and is a wonderful place for quiet and meditation. Access the garden through the gate near the Youth Center.

As many of you know, my time in my role as Business Manager at the parish has come to an end.
It's difficult to put into words the emotions I feel as I write this, especially as August would have marked my 25th year of service to this truly special community.

For a quarter of a century, it has been a great privilege and joy to walk alongside you, celebrating highs, supporting during lows, and witnessing the incredible faith and spirit of St. Jude. From taking pictures at special events, the fun times at the annual picnic, and setting up all the special dinners, to the late nights working on finances, coming up with an ice breaker for meetings, and the moments of prayer with staff and my volunteers. These are just some of my lasting memories. The last three years working with Fr. Thuerauf has grown my faith in ways I never imagined and I have truly enjoyed working with him and will miss our coffee meetings. I was excited when I became the parish photographer and I really enjoy attending the midnight Mass at Christmas. Every moment has been a blessing, and the relationships I've built with so many of you are treasures I will carry forever.

While the circumstances of my departure are difficult, my heart remains full of immense gratitude for the love and support you've always shown me.
You are not just parishioners and staff; you are my family and friends.

I pray for the continued strength, unity, and flourishing of St. Jude. May God continue to bless each one of you abundantly.

With profound gratitude and love,

Nikkole Cubbage

Serran Prayer for Vocations
 O God, who wills not the death of a sinner, but rather that he be converted and live, grant we beseech You, through the intercession of Blessed Mary ever Virgin, St. Joseph, her spouse, St. Junipero Serra and all the saints, an increase in laborers for your Church, fellow laborers with Christ, to spend and consume themselves for souls through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.
